

2019 Data Metrics Learning Collaborative Draft Schedule

Starting on April 2, the cohort will meet online at 2pm Eastern for nine weeks for a mix of didactic presentation, participant exercises, and discussion board conversation. Registration information for all webinars will be sent out via email by the GoToWebinar system.

Individual accounts will be created for cohort members to access the Discussion Board prior to the first session. If you have any trouble with your registration, please contact Mariah Blake at mblake@clinicians.org.

All sessions will be held from 2:00-2:30pm EST
